

WEEK 09 2009 (ending March 1)

ELITE TOP 5 (Division 1)

1	France	2610 points
2	Spain	1510
3	Germany	1088
4	Sweden	758
5	England	503

ELITE TOP 5 (Division 2)

1	Netherlands	249 points
=2	Scotland	243
=2	Switzerland	243
4	Israel	87
5	Portugal	75

SUMMARY

As the leader board starts to take shape for 2009, France has increased its lead producing top results in the Spanish International. Spain remains in second from Germany. Both Sweden and England are added to the competition and overtake Wales. Belgium also makes its debut. Ireland moves from Division 2 into Division 1 by now having the minimum number of players contribute to their team score.

Scotland moves from first to second in Division 2, which is headed by the Netherlands. Switzerland, Israel, Norway and Italy join the competition.