EUROPEAN TEAM SHIELD CHAMPIONSHIPS 2026 – MEN AND LADIES

Dear friends

As you will be aware, these EGA Championships are due to be played in Malta between the 29th July and 1st August with the official practice round on the 28th July.

Malta does get somewhat busy during the summer months with hotels and flights getting booked early. So, ahead of the EGA's official publication of the information package for these championships, we wanted to communicate the importance of your attention to give due and early consideration of your participation.

Malta International Airport is linked directly with almost all other European airports with the known major airlines and also with low-cost carriers.

The chosen official hotel for the tournament will be the AX ODYCY in Qawra. The hotel is offering the possibility to book single, twin or quad rooms on bed and breakfast basis with the following preferential rates.

Single:	€ 190.00 per night
Twin:	€ 210.00 per night
Quads:	€ 320.00 per night

The quad rooms are ideal for the players. These are two interconnecting rooms with each room accommodating two players and having its own bathroom facilities. This works out to € 80 per night per player.

The hotel booking process is directly with the hotel via email: conferences.odycy@axgroup.mt. Any enquiries regarding your stay at the Hotel should be made through this email address.

No names are needed at this stage. In the email you need to, of course, identify yourselves, indicate the type and number of rooms you will require e.g. 1 x quad room for ladies team + 1 x quad room for men's team + 2 single rooms and suggest date of arrival and departure.

Once you submit this accommodation request, you will be contacted by the Hotel to confirm your reservation with an invoice asking for payment of the rooms chosen. The requirement is for 100% payment and booking will be confirmed once this payment is made. Cancellations received on or before 30th June will be eligible for a 50% refund.

The cut-off date for rooms' reservations is end of April.

The team fee is being set at € 920 for 4 players and the captain/advisor. This covers tournament costs such as airport transfers, daily transfers between hotel and course, practice and tournament rounds, range balls, trolley (2 wheel only available) as well as lunch at the club house. For any additional party member, there will be a cost of € 150.

The official communication from the EGA will be forthcoming by mid-February, but we urge you to start thinking about this already before then.

It would be appreciated if those that are already committed to participate in these championships to drop us an email in advance.

Of course, we remain at your disposal to clarify any other details.

We look forward to welcoming you here soon.
